ART THEATER

You will be filled with delight and swept off your feet in sheer admiration. If you visit the Art today and see the superbly colored feature film "The Vestal." You might imagine that the actors in this spectacular drama had stepped out from the canvas of one of Alma-Tadema"s master pieces, cadowed with life and motion. The impression which this triumph by the Pathe Freres leaves upon your mind is like that produced by the read here is no one who will predict that ing of some epoch-making book, the the world. When you are through you will go away and tell your friends and you will come again.

The phenomenal juggling feats of esso, the Australian Cinquevalli, will be a revelation to you also. No extra charge of admission.

PARK THEATER

Yellowstone Park the finest film ever shown here, will, by request, be shown tonight and tomorrow night, In addition there will be the usual other good films shown. Mr. Carlisle's stories are extra good this week and the Melnotte sistern' song is one of the last English bits, Mr. George Milne will sing, with slides, "When the Roses Bloom Again," Remember, the Park always has and always will give more and a better show for the money than any other show it town
